"Ninety-Three"

The Story of a Famous Name
and How It Originated

The foremost dermatologist in France, Dr. Sabouraud of Paris, and Professor Unna, Hamburg, Germany, discovered that a microbe caused baldness. To prove their theory, Dr. Sabouraud infected a guinea pig with some of these microbes and in a comparatively short time the animal was denuded of every hair that was on its body.

Some eminent histologists and chemists were employed by the United Drug Co., Boston, Mass., to find the means of destroying these microbes and a remedy that would create a new growth of hair where the hair roots had not been entirely destroyed.

After months of study, experimenting and research work, they discovered what they claimed would do what was demanded. To unquestionably prove their theory, 100 leading druggists, located in as many different cities, were requested to each furnish the name of a responsible person suffering from falling hair and baldness. Each of these 100 persons was furnished three bottles of the preparation with a request to give it a thorough trial and report results.

Fifty of these people failed to report. Two declared they had been bald for years; that their hair follicles had long been closed, and their scalps were smooth and glossy.

Ninety-three of the 100 sent in enthusiastic reports, stating that they were delighted with the hair-restoring qualities of the preparation, and expressed sincere thanks for the wonderful benefits brought about by its use. In commemoration of this, the new preparation was named "93" Hair Tonic.

I sell this remedy with the distinct understanding that it is free of cost to the user in every case where it does not completely remove dandruff, stimulate the hair follicles, revitalize the hair roots, stop the hair from falling out, grow new hair and make the scalp free from irritation.

Rezell "93" Hair Tonic comes in two sizes; prices, 50 cents and $1. Remember you can obtain Rezell Remedies in Maysville only at my store—The Rezell Store. Thos. J. Chenoweth.

Why Cough

Ask your doctor if all coughs are necessary.
If not, then why cough? Ask him about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Stop coughing! Coughing rasps and tears. Stop it! Coughing prepares the throat and lungs for more trouble. Stop it! There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing. Stop it! Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a regular doctor's medicine for coughs and colds.

GOT THE COIN

Bewitching Eyes, Pretty Face and Tale of Woe Did the Business
—Onto Their Job

A number of Maysville's philanthropic and best citizens are saying unto themselves, "what fools we mortals be," especially when two pretty girls are in the case and work the rabbit foot.

Not that they are mourning over the $30 that they chipped in and raised for the fair and forlorn maidens; it is not the money that has gone glimmering that they are grieved over,—no indeed. What they really feel like kicking themselves into the middle of next week about is the fact that they were such consummate suckers and fell easy prey to the wiles of two adventurous hot handsome young ladies who were solely on the beat and after soft marks.

They were exceedingly smart and knew their business. They claimed to have formerly resided back of South Ripley, and told a pathetic tale of woe in a plausible way that seldom failed to touch and reach the right spot of a sympathetic person. It only required a half day to garner in the above amount.

From here they went to Paris and while aboard the train they were observed having a jolly good time and enjoying a hearty laugh over their luck here and prospective good fortune in the Bluegrass cities.

They were wise ewes, all the same.

WANTS HER LETTER PUBLISHED

For Benefit of Women who Suffer from Female Ills

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. My pains all left me, I grew stronger, and within three months I was a perfectly well woman."

"I want this letter made public to show the benefit women may derive from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. JOHN G. MOLDAN, 2115 Second St., North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials like the above prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made exclusively from roots and herbs.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. For 20 years she has been helping sick women in this way, free of charge. Don't hesitate—write at once.

BURDENS LIFTED
 From Maysville Backs—Relief Proved By Lapse of Time.

Backache is a heavy burden; Nervousness wears one out; Rheumatic pain; urinary ills; All are kidney burdens—Daily effects of kidney weakness. No use to cure the symptoms; Relief is but temporary if the cause remains. Cure the kidneys and you cure the cause. Relief comes quickly—comes to stay. Doan's Kidney Pills cure kidney ills. Prove it by your neighbor's case. Here's Maysville testimony:

The story of a permanent cure: William H. Paul, 333 East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says: "For two years I had pains in my back and other troubles, caused by disordered kidneys. When Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention I began their use and they soon brought me relief. I cheerfully endorse this remedy as one that lives up to the claims made for it."

The above statement was given on December 13th, 1904, and on February 6th, 1905, Mr. Paul added: "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills has not changed since I first recommended them. My cure has been lasting and I am now in good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

TREATMENT WILL CURE.

Piles make life unhappy and ruin the best disposition. Most sufferers have been bitterly disappointed by many failures to find a cure.
A medicine in tablet form, taken internally, that avoids the unpleasant features of ointments, suppositories and operations, and cures thoroughly by removing the inside cause, is surely worth trying, especially as J. James Wood & Son, Maysville, Ky., guarantee it.

ing this stock and we pride ourselves on our strict adherence to the highest standard in each case, therefore we conscientiously say that for the price this underwear cannot be excelled. Judge for yourself.

THE MAYSVILLE PUBLIC LEDGER's reference to General PERCY HALEY on his retirement from office was neither smart, true nor gentlemanly, and the Editor ought to apologize to his readers and to the General with his head hanging in shame. However, General HALEY can take care of himself. It is a sort of journalism that THE LEDGER displays that we condemn and deplore.—Lexington Gazette.

Now, my dear "Uncle" Pap, do you imagine that you are the only Editor on earth who has a monopoly of the gentle art of scurrilous journalism? We know of no writer in the land more addicted to slangy, vulgar and pointed "personal journalism," than your humble self. Your witty, salacious and poisoned shafts have perforated the tough entice of divers and sundry Republicans and you have gloried in the feat. Now when a fellow dares to shove one at an "avouited" (?) follower of the Bill Goebel School of Music Hall Democracy, you attempt to make us go down on our knees and do a little superfluous salaaming to appease the insulted wrath of a man whose principal claim to public and party recognition has been measured only by his ability to devise ways and means—and very dirty and disreputable means at that, to serve his party and his masters without regard to political honor or even the cloak of virtue.

General HALEY may be a staunch and loyal Democrat, and his fealty to Governor BECKHAM on all occasions is commendable and beautiful to behold; he is, no doubt, "a jolly good fellow," and justly popular with the former leaders of Bluegrass Democracy, which stole Nigger votes in Fayette county by the thousands and arose to power through the machinations of GOEBEL's celebrated Music Hall coup and the brass-riveted Goebel election laws which fixed matters, link by link, by a concatenation of "sure things," which left no doubt or uncertainty as to how Louisville, Lexington and "Bailey Precinct" would go, and permitted "Mr. P. Tree," "Mr. T. Table," "Mr. Chair" and several hundred other wooden voters to mystify the public, manufacture majorities out of minorities, stuff ballot-boxes, prostitute man's holy franchise to base party uses and sacrifice our liberties on the altar of partisan dishonor.

In all of these accomplishments General HALEY was a Past Master, and he always occupied a high chair at the Frankfort and Lexington councils of Democracy, along with Judge JAMES HARGIS, SOUTH TRIMBLE and a host of other "jolly good fellows" who held power till the fall of Goebelism in 1908, and who directly caused an outraged public opinion to elect AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON, Governor, and

WILLIAM H. COX, Lieutenant-Governor of Kentucky on the Republican ticket.

The Goebelites sowed the wind and reaped the whirlwind. If they are satisfied with the end of Goebelism, Hargisism, Trimbleism and Haleyism in Kentucky they should eat their hanks of defeat in happy silence and satiety, but from the stinking dump of their foul partyism, we hope there is arising a cleaner politics, nobler men for civic life, and Democrats who can hold up their heads and proudly claim to be followers of JEFFERSON, JACKSON, CLEVELAND, LINDSAY, CARLISLE and WATTERSON.

As to General HALEY's record as an officeholder, he is no doubt honestly entitled to a clean bill of health. We have never heard of the least mal or misfeasance in office due to him, and it is taken for granted that he has filled the bill with honor to the State and credit to himself and given value received with his salary. His campaign methods are what we criticize and his partisan record is what we tried to condemn; and that is surely enough to convince any one except the purblind individual who votes for "a yaller dog if he's a Democrat." HALEY's Democracy has never been questioned, and his devotion to Governor BECKHAM is justly due, no doubt, to that gentleman's brilliant record and his pre-eminent ability and attainments. The Editor of THE PUBLIC LEDGER, while differing with Mr. BECKHAM politically, has had much admiration for the young Governor. We not only consider him the shrewdest Democratic politician of the age, but he is one of the brainiest men Kentucky has produced in a generation. Editor BECKHAM is the worthy scion of a proud line of Kentucky Governors. Therefore we would be stating an untruth if we dared to censure HALEY for worshipping BECKHAM, and the mutual friendship between the two is but natural and commendable.

Again we state that our "insulting remarks" were not directed at General HALEY personally, but politically, yes, and then some. Nothing so becomes the honorable gentleman's record as his voluntary retirement from partisan and offensive official activity. If we had an old shoe handy we would hurl it at HALEY's block and yell "Scat! and may bad 'cess go wid ye!" But, General, please don't ask us to fight a duel or take what we have to say too much to heart. You've had your little fling and you're scheduled for an everlasting and a jolly good time in "The Down and Out Club."

The above article, or the most of it, was written several days ago and prior to the suspension of The Lexington Gazette, edited by the esteemed Brother WALTON. We have no desire to strike a man when he's down, and, as Br'er WALTON is now "an Editor without a newspaper," we apologize for the affront of replying to his gentle thrust(?) when he has not equal weapons of defense. However, silence is sometimes deadlier than notice, and Br'er WALTON can do as he darn pleases, except fight. We have a natural horror of fighting, unless it be on paper or by proxy.

Free Sample For Baby's Ills

Something can and must be done for the puny, crying baby, for the child that refuses to eat and is restless in its sleep. And since the basis of all health is the proper working of the digestive organs, look first to the condition of the stomach and bowels.

A child should have two full and free movements of the bowels a day. This emptying of the bowels is very important, as with it comes a clear head, a lightness of step, good appetite and sound sleep. But it is equally important to know what to give the child in the emergency of constipation and indigestion. Cathartics are too strong and salts and other purgatives are not only too strong, but the child refuses them because of their bad taste. Have you ever tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin? It is a liquid tonic that families have been using for a quarter of a century. It is mild, pleasant-tasting and promptly effective. It is good for you as well as the child, but there is nothing better to be found for children. They like its taste—you will not have to force them to take it.

First of all, if you have not yet used it, Dr. Caldwell would like to send you a sample bottle free of charge. In this way you can try it before buying. Later, when convinced of its merits, you can get it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as thousands of other families are doing. The family of Mr. D. W. Spangler of Strattonville, Pa., as well as that of Mr. A. F. Johnson of Walnut Grove, Tenn., started with it in that way and now write that it is their one family necessity next to food itself. If you are unfortunate enough to have a sickly child, one given to constipation and indigestion, you should send for a free sample of this remedy. Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For further request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 507 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

GENERAL HALEY.

Lexington Gazette.

The State Journal, edited by ex-Governor J. C. W. Beckham, pays an exalted and merited tribute to General Percy Haley on his retirement from the public service after seven years of faithful work. If any man ever had reason to praise another, the former Governor has to commend General Haley, who has been his unvarying and loyal personal and political friend and aided more than any one in attaining his ambitions. General Haley has fully repaid the confidence Governor Beckham placed in him and has proven himself capable, honest and true. He has been vilified beyond measure, but has been vindicated in every way. Truly does the Governor say: "Excoriated and abused in campaigns, critically investigated by his political enemies for two years, he stands today upon his retirement from official position with his integrity unblemished and his good name redeemed, even in the eyes of his enemies, from a single stain. Many hundreds of thousands of dollars of the people's money have passed through his hands, and not one of them has corruptly gone amiss. With opportunities and temptations that might have seduced a less honorable official he retires now financially a poor man, but young, active, hopeful and with a bright future before him."

General Haley is one of the most sagacious politicians in the State and his management of the Governor's several campaigns attest. He absolutely idolizes Governor Beckham and never thinks of himself when he can serve him. He is intensely loyal to him and his friends and there is nothing honorable that he would not do for him even at the risk of his life. Such loyalty and devotion is as rare as it is commendable in this instance. General Haley is in the best sense a self-made man and being of great resource, no one need worry over his future. He will take care of that, and good luck to him.
